Jacques Lassier Prize 2026

Call for Submissions – LIDC Congress, Bucharest

Dear Members,

The International League of Competition Law (LIDC) is pleased to announce the launch of the Jacques Lassier Prize 2026, established in memory of Jacques Lassier, distinguished Lawyer at the Paris Bar and former Chairman of the LIDC. This prestigious award seeks to encourage outstanding scholarly work in the field of competition law and to foster academic excellence and dialogue across jurisdictions.

The Prize will be formally presented during the 2026 LIDC Congress, to be held in Bucharest in October 2026. As we prepare to welcome leading practitioners, academics, and policymakers from around the globe, we invite you to actively support and promote this important academic competition.

Please note that new rules governing the 2026 edition of the Prize are available in the Resources section of the LIDC website:
